JOIN THE MOVEMENT TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

Our catalogue of sustainability team building events and activities is designed to help companies achieve their CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY goals while also responding to the growing awareness of sustainable practices among individuals.

Combining the FEEL-GOOD FACTOR with a positive environmental impact, your team can make a REAL DIFFERENCE to the environment and boost your collective wellbeing both in and outside of the office.

Each event can be delivered individually or as a COMPREHENSIVE suite of workshops combined into a full day of activities.

LET THE CHANGE START HERE

WORKSHOP

BEE HOTEL

Whether you're a bee enthusiast or a curious newcomer, this workshop promises a rewarding green-fingered adventure!

Become a guardian of these vital pollinators, ensuring their survival and, in turn, nurturing our planet. Under the guidance of expert facilitators, unleash your creativity and design bee-friendly habitats that not only support bees but also champion sustainability. Think outside the box, prioritise functionality, and let your imagination run wild as you construct these sanctuaries!

Delving deeper into the workshop, you'll discover the power of eco-conscious practices and the profound impact they have on our environment. To conclude the workshop, you'll take home your completed bee hotel as a useable memento of your efforts!

INCLUDED IN THE EVENT:

- An experienced event team and manager
- Set up and pack down of event kit
- Event materials and supplies
- A bee hotel to take home

WORKSHOP

BIRDHOUSE

In this interactive workshop, you'll have the opportunity to roll up your sleeves and unleash your DIY skills as you build a personalised birdhouse for our feathered friends.

The Birdhouse Sustainability Workshop offers participants an engaging event to explore creativity, collaboration, and environmental consciousness. Facilitated by skilled guides, teams will brainstorm and construct innovative designs that emphasise functionality and aesthetic appeal.

With a focus on sustainability, the workshop encourages participants to consider eco-friendly practices in their birdhouse construction. Through this process, teams will deepen their understanding of environmental stewardship and conservation principles.

INCLUDED IN THE EVENT:

- An experienced event team and manager
- Set up and pack down of event kit
- Event materials and supplies
- A birdhouse to take home

WORKSHOP

KOKEDAMA

Immerse yourself in the Japanese art form of Kokedama – a historical practice that transforms plants into living masterpieces! Get ready for an exhilarating team building experience that combines creativity, collaboration, and a deep commitment to our planet.

In this workshop, you'll embark on a journey to create your own Kokedama, guided by expert facilitators who will ignite your imagination and unleash your green thumb. This includes carefully choosing suitable plants and moss varieties, and intertwining them to create striking, self-sustaining botanical compositions.

Through your Kokedama projects, you'll hone your communication, problem-solving, and teamwork skills, forging bonds that will last long after the workshop is over.

INCLUDED IN THE EVENT:

- An experienced event team and manager
- Set up and pack down of event kit
- Event materials and supplies
- A Kokedama to take home

LIVING ART

Welcome to our Living Art Sustainability Workshop – a transformative experience that hones creativity, community, and environmental consciousness!

Guided by experienced facilitators, your team will upcycle old and discarded items like clothes, shoes and other objects into green, one-of-a-kind masterpieces, revived with a fresh sense of purpose.

But this workshop is more than just a crafting session; it's a journey of teamwork and collaboration. As you work alongside fellow participants, you'll forge bonds that transcend the creative process. Share stories, exchange ideas, and marvel at each other's ingenuity as you bring your visions to life together.

INCLUDED IN THE EVENT:

- An experienced event team and manager
- Photographs taken during the event
- Event tools and supplies
- A living art sculpture to take home

WORKSHOP LIVING WALL

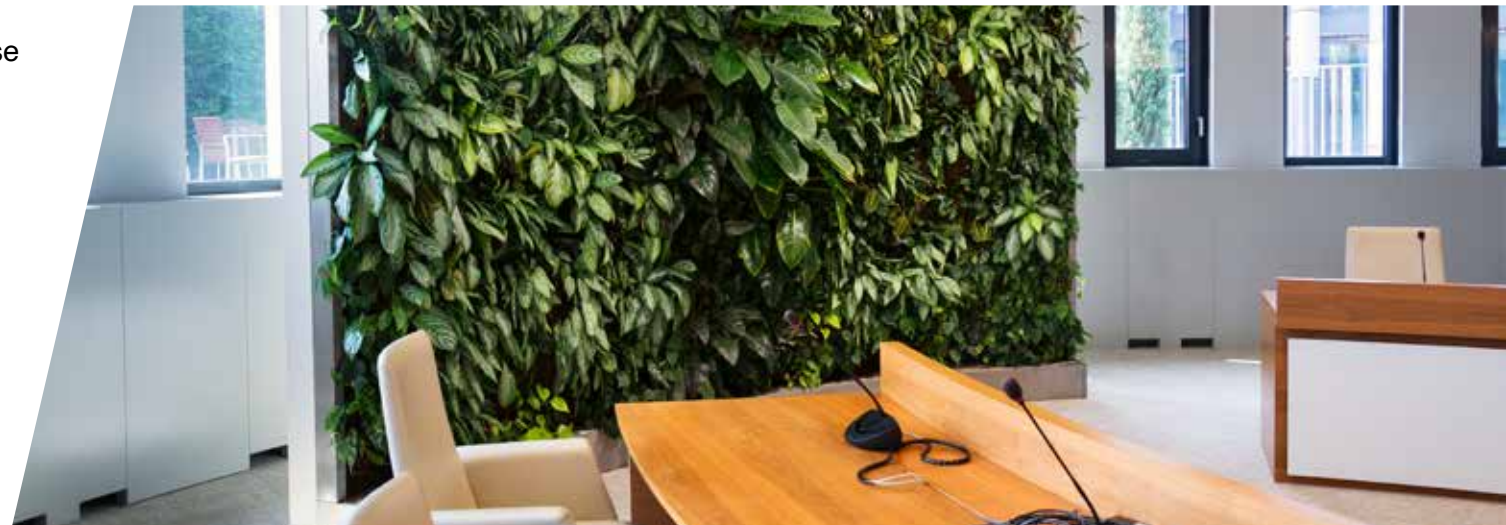

Transform your workspace into a vibrant oasis bursting with life! Say goodbye to the dreary greys and hello to a kaleidoscope of colours with a living wall!

This team building workshop defies the norm by offering a fresh and rewarding experience that benefits both your team and the planet. Imagine a day filled with creativity and camaraderie, as your colleagues collaborate to revolutionise your office environment. Ranging from lush greenery to vibrant blooms, our event team will bring all the necessary resources directly to you!

From selecting the right plants to designing the layout, every decision becomes an opportunity for team work and shared expression. Beyond the immediate task at hand, the experience of tending to a living wall cultivates a deeper sense of responsibility and ownership.

INCLUDED IN THE EVENT:

- An experienced event team and manager
- Set up and pack down of event kit
- Event materials and supplies
- A permanent living wall display

WORKSHOP TERRARIUM

With mud as your canvas and nature as your muse, roll up your sleeves and prepare to sculpt your very own miniature ecosystem into life!

This hands-on team building workshop guides you through the art of terrarium building, offering an engaging experience aimed at igniting creativity, fostering teamwork, and cultivating environmental consciousness. Collaborate with your team to design and construct these beautiful miniature worlds, encapsulated within glass vessels.

With a profound focus on sustainability, our terrarium workshop champions eco-friendly practices. Deepen your team's understanding of environmental stewardship and underscore the importance of infusing green sanctuaries into our urban landscapes.

INCLUDED IN THE EVENT:

- An experienced event team and manager
- Set up and pack down of event kit
- Event materials and supplies
- A terrarium to take home
